1. Privacy Policy

Introduction

At Akinyi Juma & Company Advocates, we are committed to protecting your privacy and ensuring the responsible use of your personal data. This Privacy Policy describes how we collect, use, share, and protect your information when you interact with our website or legal services.

Information We Collect

- Personal Information: Name, email, phone, address, and identification details.
- Legal Case Information: Details relevant to legal representation.
- Usage Data: IP address, browser type, site interactions, and analytics.
- Cookies: Used to enhance site performance and personalize user experience.

How We Use Your Information

- To provide legal advice and services tailored to your case.
- To respond to inquiries, manage consultations, and send updates.

- To improve website functionality and client service delivery.
- For marketing purposes, with your consent.

Data Sharing

We do not sell or rent personal data. We may share your information with:

- Trusted service providers under confidentiality obligations.
- Legal authorities, when required by law.
- Business successors, in case of restructuring or acquisition.

Data Security

We implement technical and administrative safeguards like encryption and restricted access to protect your information. However, no system is completely immune to risk.

Your Rights

You may:

- Access and correct your personal information.
- Request deletion of your data, where legally possible.
- Withdraw consent for marketing communications.
- Opt out of non-essential cookies via your browser settings.

2. Terms of Service
